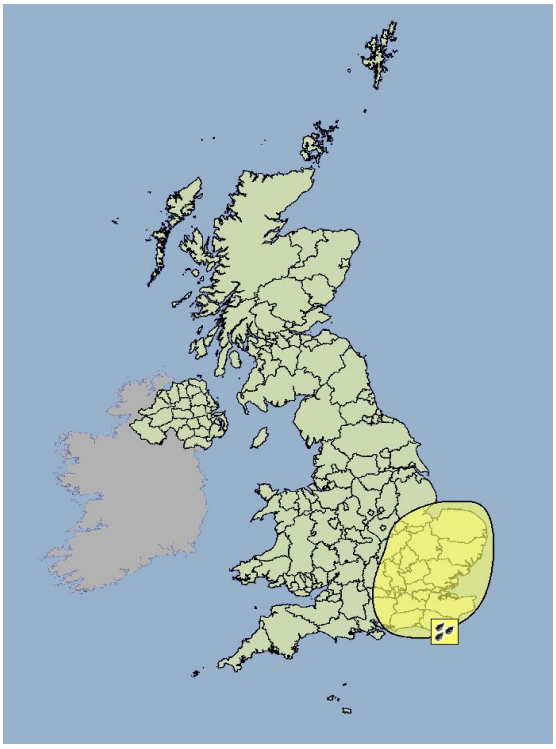
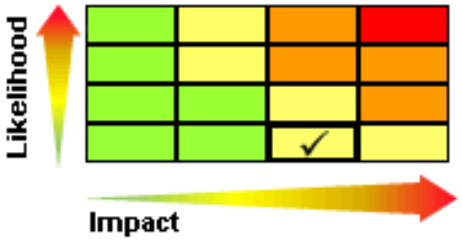
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
The risk of disruption from thunderstorms is greatest across the west of the yellow area early on Thursday morning and will transfer east, clearing Kent and East Anglia by early afternoon.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Rain

Valid from 06:00 on Thu, 22nd Jun 2017 until 13:00 on Thu, 22nd Jun 2017

A band of heavy, thundery showers is expected to move from west to east on Thursday morning. Some places will miss these, but where they do occur there is potential for heavy downpours producing sudden localised flooding of homes and businesses and disruption to power supplies from lightning strikes.
